Second Super Classic of the Season Set for Springfield

Pueblo, Colo. (September 8, 2010) – American Bucking Bull Inc. (ABBI) will be holding one of the highest-paying Classic events of the season in Springfield, Mo. Sept. 17-18. There will be $25,000 in added money, with an projected payout of over $71,000.

The 3 and 4-year-old Classic bulls will be matched up against the PBR's Top 40 athletes in rounds one and two. The bull with the top combined score will take home close to $20,000. This is the second Super Classic of the year, a format which allows the ABBI's top bulls to buck twice in one weekend at PBR Built Ford Tough Series events.

Although young, the ABBI bulls are some of the cowboys' toughest competition. Classic bulls Bushwacker and Moon have both been named as potential contenders for the PBR's prestigious Bucking Bull of the Year award.

The first Super Classic was held in Tulsa in July. Moon captured that title and the highest regular season prize purse in history for a Classic animal. Bushwacker currently leads the race to be the regular-season champion. The $250,000 Classic Champion will be crowned in Las Vegas during the ABBI and PBR World Finals, Oct. 20-24.

The Super Classic action takes place at JQH Arena. Tickets to the PFI western.com Invitational Presented by Bass Pro Shops are available through tickets.com and start at just $15. The event takes place Sept. 17-19 and can be seen on TV on Versus.
